BUT THE BOARD OBJECTED

Though He Told of a Quarantined Family Neglected by the Township Officials, the Health Authorities Had No Desire to Pick a Quarrel, and Refused to Listen—The Garbage Question Discussed. Talk About Milk—The Annual Report.

The board of health met last night and held a session of an hour, during which time one motion was passed, the garbage and milk questions discussed, and the board went home at 9 o'clock.

When Mayor Gilbert called the meeting to order there were present Members Purinton, Thomas, Huston and Chambers, with Health Officer Ogden and Sanitary Policeman King. The question of fixing license fees for regulating the sale of milk by local dairymen was quickly disposed of by a motion to leave the matter in the hands of council. Then the garbage question was taken up and discussed at length. Health Officer Ogden spoke in regard to licensing garbage collectors. He thought it would be a good idea to assign a collector to each ward.

Mr. Purinton was of the opinion that it was best to go slow in the matter. It was something of much consequence, and required a great deal more thought than at first appeared. Some cities, he believed, paid collectors of garbage, but he knew of no place where a regular license was paid. He suggested that it be laid over until the next regular meeting of the board, and a committee appointed to investigate meanwhile.

Mr. King said Pittsburg had never been regulated by any special law until this year, but he knew that a contract had recently been let there to a Mr. Flinn and his partner for such work. Mr. Chambers said in behalf of the East End people that it was all well enough to notify people to get rid of the health endangering rubbish, but where were they going to put it. In East End they resort to the run which flows through that section of the city and when summer suns dry up the stream the condition of the refuse matter can best be imagined. The law forbade anybody dumping garbage in the river, so what could they do. Mr. Thomas thought there ought to be enough boxes and other wood among the garbage to burn it, and Mr. Chambers said perhaps there was, while Doctor Ogden mentioned prospective crematories and suggested a committee, which suggestion, however, met the fate of Mr. Purinton. Mr. Chambers urged that East End had attained such a size that some provision should be made, but Mr. Purinton thought the board should remember the German professor, who remarked to his students, while preparing to dissect a body, "We have not time to do this in a hurry." He thought the amount of garbage in East End was small, anyway.

Mr. Chambers admitted that possibly there was not a great amount, but East End had no connection with the public sewer system which made the condition of affairs all the worse. Then the member from the first branch out and his further remarks took the wind out of the balance of the sanitary authorities and created a genuine sensation which buried the garbage question so deep that no attempt was made to resurrect it. He referred to the present case of scarlet fever in that section and said that the family had undoubtedly been neglected by the trustees. "They do not get even the necessities of life, and this is the fault of the township trustees," said Mr. Chambers.

Mr. Purinton—I am in favor of expunging that from our records and would not like it in the press. Unless Mr. Chambers is certain about this we must do nothing in the matter.

Mr. Chambers—I know it to be the case. The family called me to their house, and showed me that they had nothing. They have been in quarantine and could get nothing elsewhere. They asked me to go to the trustees and see that they paid more attention to them.

Mr. Purinton—I say again that we should not judge hastily in this matter. We have an arrangement with the trustees whereby they take charge of such cases and am satisfied that with the many cases they have already had they have done their duty. You will always find kickers. Why some people even want snuff.

Mr. Chambers—They have not been getting what they are entitled too.

Mr. King—The man stated to me that quarantine or no quarantine they must have something to eat and would have to go to work if the family was not cared for.

Mr. Chambers—The man's wife kicked over the traces. She said she would tear down the quarantine card no matter what the consequences were. Her husband would have to work and buy them food. I advised her to let the card alone. It is very annoying to have such cases coming up.

Mr. Purinton was in favor of dropping the matter, urging that the objections were probably without cause, while Mr. Thomas inclined the same way, and told about a man to whom the board of health gave an order for groceries. He got two dozen of oranges, five boxes of sardines and a box of honey.

The reporter haunted the health officer and he asked, when it became evident that there would be no quarrel with the trustees, "What about the press?"

The press was as silent as the grave, as no questions were directed to him and he not being a member of the board had no right to speak on the subject. Mayor Gilbert offered a club to the member who would undertake the job of killing the reporter, but there were no aspirants and the board spoke of matters more pleasant. It was decided to leave the matter of milk certificates until the next meeting, as the dairymen's association will hold a meeting tonight.

The annual report, which will be presented to council at the next regular meeting of council, when two new sanitary men will be appointed, was read. After several additions it was placed again in the care of the compiler, Mr. Purinton, with the approval of the board. Then the board adjourned.

ANOTHER LIE NAILED.

James A. Power Branded as a Falsifier and Fraud.

Every word uttered by James A. Power, the supposed editor of a so-called labor paper, as published by the prevaricator last night in the Crisis is an absolute, unmitigated falsehood, and is calculated to mislead the public and the business men of East Liverpool. The resolutions published by Trades Council, refusing to sanction or uphold the paper called "The People," was written by an official of the Trades Council, and was then taken to the News Review office for publication. By the way, there are men connected with said council who know more about journalism in a minute than this same fraud, James A. Power, has ever even dreamed of. This man Power has never given or procured a cent for Typographical union, No. 318. On the contrary, James A. Power has been a burden, in more ways than one, to Union No. 318, and said union has very materially assisted this falsifier, when he needed it badly. He came here with nothing, and has lived on the bounty of men who earn their living by the sweat of their brow. Let James A. Power have a care, as the clouds are getting close about him, and the deluge is sure to fall.

AN OFFICIAL OF NO. 318.

PRESIDENT RUHE'S CARD.

Explicit and Emphatic Statement From the President of Trades Council.

I desire to state, on behalf of members of Trades and Labor council, and in justice to the News Review, that the resolution passed at our last regular meeting, stating the action of the council in regard to "The People," was submitted by me, and passed without a dissenting voice. I would further state had Mr. Power come before council and stated his case in a truthful manner, and not misrepresented matters, this action would have not been necessary.

WILLIAM RUHE,
President Trades Council.

Remembered the Workers.

Postmaster Miskall, who has been in Washington on business for several days, returned yesterday afternoon, and gladdened the hearts of the employees of the office. When wandering about Washington he did not forget that there were men and women at home who appreciate kindness, and he purchased a gold and pearl glove buttoner and a handsome paper knife for each of the ladies. Then he found a place where they sold stamp boxes and remembering the demands upon the carriers in Liverpool, he bought a box for each man. As they were out when he arrived he placed them on their desks, where they were found when the carriers came in. The force feel grateful for the postmaster's consideration.

A ROW AT MRS. HAMILL'S PLACE

Mrs. Bart Brown Told the West End Saloonist That She Was No Lady and the Latter Conducted Her to the Door in no Gentle Manner—Only for the Papers There Might Have Been Bloodshed—Sent to a Squire—Another Case.

The peaceful meeting of the board of health in the mayor's office last night was interrupted by a pair of women, who called promptly at 8:30 to pour into Mayor Gilbert's unwilling ears a tale of woe—that is, one of them did; the other was evidently on hand to see that the complainant's courage did not fail.

The pair were Mrs. Bart Brown and Mrs. Rigby. Mrs. Brown was mad clear through, and she had come all the way from May street to tell the mayor about it. Mrs. Rigby lives in the same house on Williams' far famed thoroughfare. Mrs. Brown has for a time suspected that her husband has not emptied his pockets on paydays, and recently discovered where his spare change went to. She told the mayor that Barton had not given her all the gold she desired and that he spent a portion of it for liquor. She has been aware from the depleted condition of Bart's purse and the two-horse power odor of Bart's breath that all was not cough drops that was scented. In vain did she plead for Bartley to cease his indulgence in the flowing bowl. Then she pursued another course. She visited the saloon of Mrs. Hamill in West End and having learned that B. Brown purchased his beverages there, requested that his supply be cut off.

Mrs. Hamill promised, or at least Mrs. Brown said so. Still Bart procured jags innumerable, and finally his wife discovered that Mrs. Hamill was faithless. Last night she followed her lord and master when he entered the saloon she took a reserved seat near the plate glass windows and opened her eagle eye to its utmost width. She saw Mrs. Hamill present Bart with a schooner and the head of the family in turn lay down a coin the denomination of which was a nickel. To see the cash disappear at such an alarming rate was more than the watchful Mrs. Brown could endure patiently, so she made her appearance in the barroom without delay and there ensued one of the liveliest lines that the Hamill hangout has seen for many a day. Mrs. Hamill was behind the bar when Mrs. Brown began to "tear her out." Pedigrees were read and reread and pet names of sulphuric tint were applied to the saloonist. Then Mrs. Hamill walked around the bar, grabbed Mrs. Brown and chucked her out in no gentle manner. During the process Mrs. Brown had the sleeve of her wrap torn and she exhibited it to the mayor, while stating that if it had not been that she was afraid of getting her name in the papers she would have shown fight.

"I told her that she was no lady," said Mrs. Brown, "and I know that she can't be and tend bar. I want her to understand that I am a lady, and you know I am, mayor."

The mayor did not venture an opinion, and Mrs. Brown followed up the remark with an oath that shook city hall to the foundation. Of course this settled the question of her being a lady, and those who heard it can sympathize with Mr. Brown in his trials and tribulations.

Mrs. Brown then went on to tell that her husband worked at Sebring's, and that she wanted to get out an attachment on his wages. She said that she didn't get the portion of the cash that she should, but strangely enough it was noticed that she was dressed in the latest style. For a half hour or more Bart's history was laid bare to the mayor and the reporters whom Mrs. Brown did not recognize, while her companion frequently remarked that "If I had a husband like that I'd show him." Mayor Gilbert finally became weary of hearing her and advised her to go to some justice of the peace who had more time than business to occupy him.

Mrs. Brown is the woman who some months ago walked into Mrs. Coulson's saloon where her beloved Bart was absorbing strong drink and smote the partner of her joys and sorrows with a club. Bart was recuscitated after several hours of hard work and finally recovered.

Collecting Money for Shamp.

John Cain, John Ryan and James Graham made the rounds in the potteries yesterday with a subscription paper asking contributions for Isaac Shamp, the man whose household effects were destroyed by the Lincoln avenue fire yesterday morning. They were very successful, securing $75, and they expect to raise the amount to $100 today. They were refused by only one man, and he was one who could have given them $5 and never known it was missing. Shamp's loss was heavy, but he was grateful because he saved the papers which gave him aged mother a pension of $12 per month. The contributions to the fund were made in small sums.

THE COMMERCIAL TRAVELER.

Will A. Rhodes Finds a Few Lines on the Drummer.

Will A. Rhodes, the eastern traveler of the Knowles, Taylor & Knowles company, has been reading poetry in his spare moments on the road, and finds that Ella Wheeler Wilcox, who is now the wife of a traveling man, has immortalized the salesman in these words:

First in the crowded car is he to offer
This traveling man unadorned, and nursing
The seat he paid for, to some woman, young,
Or old, or wrinkled. He is first to offer Something, a trifle from the samples maybe
To please the fancy of the baby.
He lifts the window and drops the curtain,
For unaccustomed hands; he lends his case
To make a bolster for a child, not certain But what it's mamma will frown him in the face.

So anxiously some women seek for danger
In every courteous act of every stranger.
Well versed is he in all ways conducive To comfort, where the host comfort can be found,
His little deeds of thoughtfulness abound,
He turns the seat unasked, but unobtrusively.

Is glad to please you, or to have you please
him,
Yet takes it calmly if you freeze him;
He smooths the Jove-like form of the official
By paying the fare of one who cannot pay.
True modesty he knows from artificial,
Will flirt of course if you are inclined that way.

And if you are sure that he detects you,
And if you're not sure that he respects
you,
The sorrows of the moving world distress
him.

He never fails to lend what aid he can,
A thousand hearts today have cause to bless him.

Thus much abused, misused commercial
man,
I do not seek to cast a halo round him,
But speak of him precisely as I've found
him.

A MURDEROUS ASSAULT.

Ira Marlatt Makes Another Attempt to Kill a Man.

A special from Columbus contains the following:

Ira Marlatt, a life prisoner in the penitentiary from Columbiana county, this morning made a murderous assault on a prisoner named Delapp, who is serving a two-year sentence from Licking county. Delapp entered the cell where Marlatt was confined, when the latter stabbed him in the back, just above the kidneys, with a case-knife. This had been ground to a point and was as sharp as a razor. The wound is about three or four inches long, and it is impossible to tell at this time how deep it is. The wound is regarded as dangerous.

That New Boat.

A Pittsburg paper has to say of the new packet:

Captain James A. Henderson returned from Cincinnati, where he had been looking after some minor details of the new packet Virginia, which is to be built there. Captain Henderson is now sorry that he contracted for a wooden vessel, and it is said that if he had it to do over again the Virginia would also be built of steel. The contract for the new boat will be let in a few days. It seems settled that the other new boat will be let in a few days. It is stated that the other new packet will be named after a combination of the three rivers. None of the names suggested from the combination have any ring about them.

McGregor's New Job.

Jesse McGregor, the Wellsville man sent to the penitentiary for the remainder of his natural life for the murder of Lizzie Ewing, is one of the favored few at the crowded reformatory. While hundreds of men are almost wild because they have nothing to employ their time, McGregor has been working in the cigar shop, and has been behaving as well as any prisoner in the place. Yesterday the hospital clerk was promoted to the position of prison druggist, and McGregor was given his place. The berth is a good one, and is eagerly sought by prisoners capable of doing clerical work.

An Amusing Incident.

An old lady created some excitement last night at the eastbound train. She wanted to get on the train, and the conductor asked her to show her ticket, when she remarked that she knew where she wanted to go to without showing him her ticket. After some words she said, "I wouldn't get on your cursed old train now if you wanted me to; there are more trains that I can go on," and left the depot in a very angry mood.

of Truancy.

A MAN WITH A BOARD BILL

For More Than Ten Dollars Finds Himself
Defending a Suit—John Sant Also a Defendant—Barbed Wire Again—Cases in Squire's Court.

Several new cases are docketed in squire's courts today and one of them for a good sized amount.

Constable Albright spent a portion of yesterday in search of Prudence and Wetzel, the East End men who are wanted in the court of Squire Morley to explain why their children do not attend school. He found Patterson and Willison, and they promised to appear today. Officer Beardmore says there are more cases of like character in the East End, and this season is sure to bring them to the surface if there are any inclined to disobey the law. There will be more arrests if the parents do not look with greater care after their children.

Patterson appeared before Squire Morley and admitted that his boy was not in school when he ought to be, but it was not his fault. He was fined $5 and costs, but he is an old man and under the circumstances the squire will probably remit the fine when Patterson pays him another visit.

The long drawnout litigation of Smith and Schneider will have another airing on Monday, when the action appears in the court of Squire Morley for disposition. The case is that in which Smith appears as the prosecutor and G. W. Meredith is the defendant. They want to know who owns that barbed wire, and the squire is expected to decide the troublesome question. The squire has been examining the records of the case, but after careful research knows almost as much about it as when he commenced.

Chase Brothers have sued John Sant for $10 in Squire Rose's court. They claim the money is due them for nursery stock. The suit will be tried on Monday.

Charles B. Magill is the name of a man who must answer the suit of George Lutton in Squire Rose's court for $114.60 the amount of a board bill. The case will not come up before the last day of the month.

The case of M. Brozka against F. J. Farmer is listed for trial this afternoon in the court of Squire Rose, but will probably be settled without a trial.

Somebody else is evidently fearful of publication. A News Review reporter was passing the Potters National bank last night when a man of middle age and a woman who was not far from three score years in appearance were talking. The woman seemed pleading, and as the scribe passed by she said: "Charley, if you keep on this way you will get your name and mine in the paper. It is awful."

May Get a Big Trip.

Since the prospects for an encampment of the Ohio National Guard are so good, the boys of Company E have been discussing it more or less and looking forward to a pleasant time on the state camp grounds at Newark. But the soldiers may not go there. It is hinted that there is something better in store for them in return for their faithful work of last year in the coal regions; a possible trip to the south. Although those supposed to know will not confirm this statement, neither will they deny it, and the boys may feel certain that they will have a big time. The fact that the Ohio guard has camped in former years in Washington City, Niagara Falls, Patterson, N. J., and the World's Fair, gives color to the statement of the present move.

Going to Cleveland.

Miss Fontaine, the actress who was taken ill at the Grand while here with the "Night Owls," has so far recovered as to be able to return to her home in Cleveland. She will leave this evening and will take a vacation of several weeks before returning to the troupe. Several members of the company came from New Castle this morning to visit her. Miss Fontaine's illness was blood poisoning in her face. The attending physician states that it was caused by an impure needle, used when she had a tooth pulled recently.

The River is Stationary.

The river is stationary without any particular stir in the way of boats. The usual Sunday packets are expected to arrive on time. A little coal continues to go south. The Olivette is doing a heavy freight business between this city and Steubenville.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., SATURDAY, APRIL 20.

For President,
WILLIAM McKINLEY,
 Of Ohio.

The members of the Republican national committee have been polled regarding their preference for president, and William McKinley heads the list with 13 votes.

The law partner of Ex-Governor Foraker says that all the hostility to Governor McKinley in this state comes from the Democrats, and the law partner speaks the truth.

The editor of the Salineville Banner has acquired the unfortunate habit of talking through his bonnet, and permitting his head to reach such proportions as to well nigh render the old tile useless as a covering.

The Salineville Banner contains an advertisement which seeks to recover a "small gentleman's watch with ladies chain." "The Banner might have been more explicit and given the owner's height in feet and inches.
 The chances for recovery would then be much better.

An exchange gives a column of sentiment in these words: "Get your printing done where you please—it's your right—but please do not, after spending your money elsewhere, come to the office begging free local notices.
 It isn't business. It isn't decent.
 Besides, it's cheeky."

The Salineville Banner charges the News Review with falsifying the election returns in favor of Gill and Smith. The innocent little thing will know better the next time. Its guiding star has many things to learn before it takes a place in the newspaper constellation of the county, among them being the simple truth that more brains are required to edit a newspaper than are brought into play when an assistant sergeant-at-arms in the state capitol is cleaning spittoons.

THE STATE CONVENTION.

There is a difference of opinion among the Republican leaders as to the best time for holding the state convention, a portion being in favor of an early date, and others advocating the theory that the eleventh hour is the right thing. The opponents of June give as a reason for their position that political wounds must heal
 before the time comes for nomination.
 According to their belief the primaries
 in some counties have brought forth bitter opposition to the winners, and these will appear in fighting form if time is not allowed to sooth the passions of men who are strong in influence in their respective counties. The advocates of June say that the custom is the early summer, and there is no reason why it should not be carried out this year. Colonel Bonnor, chairman of the state central committee, wants the convention in August, but such men as Judge Nash, Mr. Hoyt, General Keiffer, Hon. J. B. Foraker and a host of others are for the last week in May or the first of June. If there is no tangible reason for delaying the convention it should be held at the usual time.

LEO PLEADS FOR UNITY

Wants the Roman and Angli-

AN ENCYCLICAL ISSUED TO-DAY.

He Further Recalls to Holy Unity All the English People, no Matter to What Faith They Belong—Declares His Affection for the Britains.

LONDON, April 20.—The Papal Encyclical in regard to the union of the Anglican and Roman Catholic churches, published here today, is addressed to the "English people who seek the kingdom of Christ in unity of faith." It opens with an expression of a long-cherished desire to address them in a special letter and thus give the illustrations English race a token of sincere affection. Continuing, the pope says:
 "We are further moved thereto by not infrequent conversations with our countrymen, who have testified to the kindly feeling of the English people toward us personally, and their anxiety for peace and eternal salvation through unity of faith. God is our witness to how keen our wish is that some effort of ours might tend to assist and further the great work of obtaining the reunion of Christendom."

After reciting the evidences of the love and care of the Roman pontiffs for England from the time of Gregory the Great, his holiness alludes to the exertions made by England to solve the social question for religious education, charitable objects, the strict observance of Sunday and the general spirit of respect for the scriptures, and the various manifestations of the power and resources of the British nation. The pope declares that men's labors, whether private or public, will not attain full efficacy without appeals to God in prayer and without the Divine blessing. He dwells upon the increasing need of unity among those holding the Christian faith as the means of defense against the inroad of modern errors.

"No thought could be more welcome to our soul," the pope says, "than that happy unity of faith and wills for which our Redeemer prayed for in earnest supplication, a unity which, useful at all times, even for temporal interests both at home and abroad, is shown by the very divisions and confusions of these days to be more than ever needful."

"The time cannot be far distant when we must appear to render an account of our stewardship to the prince of pastors.
 How happy and blessed should we be if we could bring Him some proof, some realization of these our wishes, which he inspired and sustained. In these days our thoughts turn with love and hope to the English people, observing how they do frequent manifest works of divine grace in their midst, how to some of them religious confusion and dissension causes deep concern, how others see clearly the need of some defense against the inroad of fallen nature, which only too readily honors the wishes of fallen nature and depraved reason, and how the number of religious and discreet men sincerely laboring for reunion increases."

The pope turns to all in England to whatever community or institution they belong, desiring to recall them to this holy unity. In this cause he calls first to his assistance the Catholics of England, whose faith and piety he knows by experience. He invokes Saint Gregory, Saint Augustine, Saint Peter and Saint George, and above all the blessed Virgin to be his pleaders before the throne of God, that he may renew the glory of ancient days. His Holiness grants to all who piously recite the prayer to the Blessed Virgin appended to the encyclical an indulgence of 300 days, and he moreover grants a plenary indulgence once a month to those who recite it daily. The encyclical, which abounds in biblical quotations, concludes by calling the blessing of God
 upon the English people.

COAL MEN NOT EXEMPT.

They Must Pay Income Tax on the Mined Product.

SCRANTON, Pa., April 20.—United States Commissioner Miller has forwarded to Collector Herring of this revenue district an important decision relative to the income tax, and affecting the profits of coal operators on their coal sales. The coal operators of this district, in which is embraced all the anthracite-producing counties, excepting Schuylkill, recently conferred with Collector Herring as to whether profits realized from the sale of coal did not come under the heading of real estate income, and therefore exempt from taxation, as decided by the supreme court.
 Collector Herring wrote to and had personal conferences with Commissioner Miller on the question. The commissioner's decision rules that the coal profits are taxable.

Tonsiline

Should be in every home. A well known citizen of Salineville writes of its merits.

SALINEVILLE, O., Mar. 19, '95.
 THE TONSILINE COMPANY:

Our daughter, Iva, for a number of years has had attacks of severe ulcerated sore throat or tonsillitis. In past years these attacks have lasted at least two weeks, on an average, while under the care of a doctor and taking different remedies. About January 1, this year, she had a similar attack and we tried Tonsiline. We were surprised to see her entirely well inside of three or four days,
 and there can be no doubt Tonsiline is all you claim for it.

Tonsiline saves dollars and lives. Be wise and keep a bottle in your home. All druggists sell

Thirty-Two Cuban Rebels Killed.

HAVANA April 20.—Private advices received here as to the effect that the rebels made an attack on the town of Yuraguana, about ten miles south of Manzanillo, but were repulsed with a loss of 32 killed. The rebel chief, Lovo, has surrendered to the Spanish authorities, not wishing to comply with the order that has been issued by the insurgent General in Chief Maceo, that all former Spanish soldiers living within reach of the rebels shall be put to the sword. Five ex-soldiers have already been killed under this order.

The Philadelphia Fire.

PHILADELPHIA, April 20.—The entire loss on stock and machinery at $250,000.

 Walter G. Wilson, the owner of the building, loses $30,000; William Dreydoppel, the soap manufacturer whose building adjoins the destroyed structure, loses $2,000 or $3,000, and between $5,000 and $8,000 damage was done to the numerous tenements in the rear.

 ment of state is in receipt of a dispatch from Consul Brice at Matanzas, Cuba, saying that the two American citizens, Justo Genere and Jose M. Caraballo, arrested at that place April 6, were released on the 19th inst. The men were suspected of complicity in the rebellion, and it was owing to the American consul's good offices that their case was disposed of favorably.

 port. The allegation involves the antique furniture house of O. L. Sypher, who is said to have secured undervaluation of importations.

A TOUGH GANG CAUGHT

Pennsylvania Horsethieves Are Landed in West Virginia.

THE LEADER SHOTS A SHERIFF.

The Shooter Shot by One of the Wounded Officer's Deputies—One of the Stolen Horses Killed—They Belong to a Mysterious Organization.

WHEELING, April 20.—News from Kingwood, Preston county, this state, gives details of a fight with horsethieves from across the Pennsylvania line, in which the sheriff of the county was fatally shot and the leader of the robbers wounded. A telephone message had been sent to Sheriff Shaw from Albrightsville, three miles east of Kingwood, to the effect that four horsethieves from Brownsville, Pa., were there. The sheriff summoned three deputies and went to answer the summons. As the posse neared the place where the gang was known to be, a fourth person, on horseback joined them. The sheriff and his men were on foot. They shortly came in sight of the four thieves who were mounted. Sheriff Shaw pluckily approached the gang, and grasping the bridle of the leader's horse, called on them to surrender.

Quick as a flash the leader pulled his revolver and fired point blank at Shaw. The ball passed through the right lung inflicting a mortal wound. Ex-Sheriff Jackson, a member of the posse, returned the fire. His ball struck a package of cigarettes, photographs in the murderer's upper vest pocket just over the heart and glancing, inflicted a flesh wound in his arm, and entering his horse's neck killed the animal instantly. The man fell to the ground and Jackson supposed he had killed him. These were the only shots fired for the robbers immediately surrendered and were taken to Kingwood and lodged in jail.

It turns out that arrests are probably of great importance, as a great number of weapons, dirkknives, keys, etc., were found on the persons of the prisoners, and there was found in their possession a quantity of jewelry and a number of gold watches showing that they had recently committed a burglary. On one was found a manuscript copy of the by-laws of a secret organization designated by the letters W. S. O.

The striking feature of the laws compels the leader to push forward in time of danger. This he tried to do when he killed Sheriff Shaw. The four men gave the names of George Smith, William Smith, Archibald Patterson and George Harvey. They claim to be from Dunbar and Brownsville, Pa. They claim they bought the horses they were riding, but it is known that they were stolen at Brownsville. Sheriff Shaw's condition is critical.

THE SITUATION CRITICAL.

Great Britain Likely to Soon Act Against Nicaragua.

WASHINGTON, April 20.—Officials and diplomats regard the answer of Lord Kimberly to Nicaragua as bringing the British-Nicaragua question to a critical stage. As these dispatches foreshadowed, the British answer is a brief but very expressive declaration to consider Nicaragua's counter-proposition to the British ultimatum. The ultimatum expired three days ago. Under these circumstances it is considered settled that Great Britain will now proceed to collect the claim, or debt, as it is viewed from the British standpoint.

The fact that Great Britain's exercise of force will not be exerted so as to affect United States interests is indicated by the fact that neither the state department nor Sir Julian Pauncefote has been notified of Lord Kimberly's response. It is said notification would be given if United States interests were to be even remotely imperilled.

The British intended mode of action against Nicaragua is believed to be a passive blockade of all Nicaraguan ports, thus crippling the local commerce, but not interfering with United States or other foreign commerce. The latest official information received here shows that Great Britain can at once bring to bear two formidable fleets for blockading purposes, one on the Pacific side and the other on the Atlantic coast of Nicaragua.

Minister Breckinridge Present.

ST. PETERSBURG, April 20.—A bazaar in aid of the new baby home, promoted by wives of the United States minister and the British ambassador, has been held here. Mr. Clifton R. Breckinridge, the United States minister, and Mrs. Breckinridge, and the Right Hon. Sir Francis C. Lascelles, the British ambassador, and Lady Lascelles, and the officials of the United States ministry and British embassy, presided at the stalls. The elite of Russian society was present. The czar gave 500 roubles toward the fund for the home.

A Negro Murderer Hung.

NEW ORLEANS, April 20.—Frank Fuller (colored) has been hanged in the Parish prison in the presence of 16 witnesses, as required by law. Miller murdered his mistress, Henrietta Gardiner, and attempted the life of another woman, dangerously wounding her and then shot himself.

RAILROADS BEING SURVEYED.

An Ohio Town Expects to Get at Least One of Three.

HOPEDALE, O., April 20.—The people of this town and vicinity are now very exultant over the prospects for the construction of a new railroad soon. One corps of engineers in the employ of the C. C. & S. R. R. has about completed the survey from the Ohio river to a point near Fife on the Wheeling & Lake Erie railroad, and will soon be ready for contracting.

The people have been informed that all coal traffic on the Wheeling and Lake Erie road was suspended on Tuesday of last week, the C. C. & S. road having issued an injunction claiming to own certain territory through here traversed by that company. Whether a permanent compromise has been effected is not known. Another company is surveying in the vicinity of Bowers-town, coming toward Hopedale. The L. E. A. & S. railroad, which has a terminus at Bergholz, has started surveys at Dillonvale and will set stakes for their route within a mile of the town limits on the northeast side.

The citizens of Hopedale do not expect to be favored with three roads, but are watching with interest the project of all, and especially the C. C. & S. road, as an official of the road stated that they expect to be tapping the rich coal fields of Harrison and Jefferson counties by next October.

ANOTHER MOLDERS' STRIKE.

One Likely to Occur in Cleveland This Spring.

CLEVELAND, April 20.—There is every indication that Cleveland will see another big molders' strike this spring. The molders' unions have demanded a return to the $2.50 rate in vogue before the industrial depression and the foundrymen have intimated that they will not do so, on the ground that it is not warranted by the condition of their business.

The molders have been strengthening their unions and declare that their treasury is in good fighting condition. They have requested a definite answer from the foundrymen today.

Massilon Coal May Go Lower.

CLEVELAND, April 20.—There is not the slightest indication that the Massilon coal war, which has been waged here for the past week, will be brought to an end very soon. A prominent dealer said that he had every reason to believe that Massilon coal, which is now selling at $2.25, would sell at $2 per ton at retail before the close of the week. Massilon consumers are taking advantage of the low prices by storing away supplies for months ahead with the result that the dealers are so rushed with orders that they cannot fill them promptly. So far there has been no move made by the coal men looking toward bringing the war to a close.

A Scrubwoman Found Dead.

DAYTON, O., April 20.—While a health officer was inspecting an old building situated on East First street, and known as the barracks, the lifeless remains of Mrs. Helena Jarman were found in a room on a cot. She had been dead for at least 24 hours prior to the accidental discovery. The deceased was 70 years old and earned a scanty living by scrubbing out banks and other buildings. Death was presumably the result of heart failure. The only known relative is a sister, residing in Minneapolis. The barracks is occupied by a mixture of poverty-stricken colored and white families.

His Wife's Blows Killed Him.

CLEVELAND, April 20.—Thomas Jones of Avon street has died as the result of injuries received at the hands of his wife, Maria Jones, on last Monday. A warrant has been issued for the arrest of the woman. On Monday the husband went to the home of a neighbor, Mrs. David Davis, on Elmo street; the wife followed him, and during the altercation which followed, pounded him over the head with a chair. The drubbing was a severe one and finally resulted in the man's death.

Incorporated in Ohio.

COLUMBUS, April 20.—The following articles of incorporation were filed in the office of the secretary of state: Bank of Westerville county, Westerville, capital stock $50,000; Hogan, McMorro & Tiekke Shoe Manufacturing company, Cincinnati, capital stock $25,000; Elberon Land company, Cincinnati, capital stock $100,000; Marshall Ave. Building and Loan company, Cincinnati, capital stock $500,000; Ice Delivery company, Cincinnati, capital stock $100,000.

Prominent Akron Man Suicides.

AKRON, O., April 20.—Thomas C. Kenyon, for many years connected with the Whitman & Barnes Manufacturing company and one of the city's best-known and most respected citizens, was found hanging in his dooryard yesterday. Business troubles are supposed to have been the cause of the suicide.

Carlisle's Brother Dead.

CINCINNATI, April 20.—Hon. George W. Carlisle, brother of Hon. John G. Carlisle, secretary of the treasury, has died at his home at Independence, Ky., yesterday afternoon, in his 57th year. He was an attorney at law, and served one term in the Kentucky legislature. The funeral will be held tomorrow.

Colonel Frank Wood Dead.

YOUNGSTOWN, April 20.—Colonel Frank Wood of the Hotel Faunt, Lima, O., has died at that place. He was a son of the late William Anson Wood of Albany, N. Y., and was a well-known inventor of mowers and reapers, though lately he followed the hotel business.

The Men Cau Return to Work.

PHILADELPHIA, April 20.—Joseph de F. Junkin, assignee of Sevil, Schofield & Sons, the Nanayunk woolen manufacturers, says that the failure was due to the strike of 500 employees a few days ago, and that if the men will return to work at the old schedule of wages, the mills will be reopened. He added that the liabilities, including mortgages, will be possibly upward of $700,000, but he had no idea of the assets.

ANOTHER DROP IN OIL.

The Standard Gives the Market an Awful Bump.

THE PRICE GOES DOWN TO $2.20.

No Further Advance Likely Until the Big Trust Gathers In All the Certificates at Its Own Price—Maledictions Hurlled at the Combine.

PITTSBURG, April 20.—A drop of 20 cents a barrel in the Standard price for credit balances gave the oil market an awful bump yesterday. Mr. Thomas Chester, the agent for the Standard in this city, announced the price at $2.40 at 10 o'clock yesterday morning. It was the last straw for many and loud maledictions were hurled at the big combine. Every broker spoken to seemed to consider any further advance unlikely, at least until the Standard has gathered in all the certificates at its own price.

The Standard had promised to pay what the world's market justified. As its price was $2.60 on Thursday the slump of 20 cents over night was consequently unexpected. Certainly there had been no change in the situation which would seem to justify it. As a result, a general rush ensued to the Standard offices in the Vandergrift building. Everybody who could sold out and the exchange was practically deserted.

All day the crowd studiously avoided the exchange. A few old-timers hung around and watched the vain efforts at "piking" of the certificate holding crowd. The market opened at $2.40, even with the Standard. It struggled up to $2.42, and then, weary and disheartened, it fell like a broken ambition back upon itself and closed at $2.20. "That's the end of it," remarked John D. Barbour. "The whole thing was a scheme of the Standard. They wanted to freeze out certificate holders and did it. Now they can rule the thing to suit themselves."

Mr. Barbour's opinion seemed to be generally held. On the local exchange only about 10,000 barrels were sold against 45,000 Thursday. At Oil City against 70,000 parted owners, against 140,000 on Thursday. "The Standard is getting every drop of oil," said James McKelvey. "It is getting it at its own price and now holds about all the certificates which have been traded on in this flurry."

It was a pretty good price at that, and while speculators may have kicked, producers didn't.

Excitement on change over the ups and downs of oil last week wasn't a circumstance to the oil excitement that reigned in Turtle Creek and vicinity last night. A new oil gusher that strided off, it is claimed, by flowing 30 barrels in 20 minutes, was developed yesterday. The well is located on the Springhill farm of Mortimer C. Miller, Esq., a wealthy retired lawyer, at Turtle Creek.

INCOME TAX RETURNS.

Commissioner Miller Sends His Estimate to Secretary Carlisle.

WASHINGTON, April 20.—Commissioner Miller, of the internal revenue bureau, has sent a letter to Secretary Carlisle in which he estimates the returns from the income tax, as follows: "Telegraphic advices received from the collectors of the several internal revenue districts indicate that the aggregate amount of income tax shown by the returns which were filed before the 16th inst., will be about $14,365,000. Delayed returns and corrections it is believed will considerably increase this amount."

"The total expenditures on account of this work, including necessary salaries and allowances, at the end of the present fiscal year will not exceed $135,000."

The best judgment of the treasury officials is that, but for the adverse decision of the supreme court, the amount carried by the returns would have been about $30,000,000.

Charles H. Mansur's Funeral.

RICHMOND, Mo., April 20.—The funeral of the late Charles H. Mansur, deputy comptroller of the treasury, took place from the residence of his son-in-law, Joseph N. Ewing, and was attended by many prominent state officials. The services were conducted under the auspices of the Masonic and Odd Fellow fraternities.

County Clerk Arrested.

DELUTH, Minn., April 20.—A. Williams, late clerk of Bayfield county, Wis., has been arrested here, charged with having embezzled, in conjunction with Alonzo Knight, between $12,000 and $20,000 county funds. Knight is a brother of United States Senator Vilas' Ashland partner, J. H. Knight.

Oil From Peru.

BRADFORD, Pa., April 20.—The Bo-vaird and Seyfang Manufacturing company are constructing a 35,000-barrel iron tank for W. L. Hardison of California, to be used for storing oil from the fields of Peru.

Two Killed and Five Injured.

A Wouldbe Rapist Hung.

A Nebraska Bank Fails.

BEAVER CITY, Neb., April 20.—The Furnas County bank has failed and is now in the possession of the state bank board. No statement of assets and liabilities has been made.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The First Spiritual and Religious society meets in Red Men's hall Sunday at 7:30 p. m. Lecture and clairvoyant readings.

A number of new telephones are being placed in position. The cut in rates was the means of materially adding to the list.

Hugh McCoy, of St. Clair, is very ill at his home in that place. He is a member of the Maccabees in this city, and is well known.

The decorators and turners and handlers of the West End pottery are playing ball this afternoon. They have an interested audience.

The remains of the late Margaret Hall, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hall, were interred in Riverview cemetery this afternoon.

A run away horse was the cause of a stir on the Lisbon road yesterday evening. It belonged to a farmer, and did not like a passing street car.

The advance agent of a museum of anatomy was here yesterday looking for a location, and found that store rooms in desirable locations were hard to find.

Robert Harker, Heber Davidson and Bently Pope, three enthusiastic wheelmen, spent yesterday in Smith's Ferry, making the trip on their wheels.

W. J. Locke, who has been in business in this city for several years, has decided that Homestead is a better place for trade, and is making preparations to move there.

The latest indication of improvement in the crockery trade seems to be in the west. Some orders coming to town from that part of the country shows an increase in volume.

Miss Alice Devon, of College street, was 12 years old yesterday. Friends to the number of fifty called on her and the evening was pleasantly spent. Miss Devon was the recipient of many presents.

A sensation that will startle the city and cause the friends of a man who is well known to wonder why some men forget their duty will appear very soon, if a rather complicated case that has been kept from the public is not settled.

Captain Supplee has received 25 blankets and a few overcoats for Company E, articles that were sadly wanted by the boys. He also received some repairs for the guns, which will put that part of the company's equipment in good condition.

Mrs. Frank Huff, who resides at the residence of W. A. Himes, on Washington street, is so ill with pneumonia that it is feared she will never recover. The case is particularly distressing from the fact that Mrs. Huff does not live with her husband.

A boy fell from a doorstep near the old cemetery, where he was playing last night with a party of companions, and striking a piece of glass cut a deep gash in his head. A woman who witnessed the accident wrapped a wet towel about the boy's head, and took him to a doctor.

Doctor Williams, the township physician, has several cases on his hands at present, but none are dangerous, and it is thought that all will recover. The amount of destitution in the city is small when compared with March and February, or with April of last year, but it is larger than the trustees want to see.

The first bloomers appeared on the streets last night, and the young ladies who wore them looked very well. The garments were made after the new style, and looked very well. A boom in bloomers can be expected after this move, for a number of persons have declared they would wear them if some one started the style.

Mrs. Leslie, the widow of Ted Leslie, who has not been in the city since the tragic death of her husband several years ago in Wheeling, was here yesterday. She called on some of the friends she knew when her husband was one of the noted sports and gamblers of the valley, and left on the afternoon train for Wheeling, where she resides.

A movement has been started for the purpose of having all voters register before they cast a ballot in the city. An official who had heard of the plan remarked that in a town the population of East Liverpool registration would be a useless expense. According to his view, the law was never intended for the smaller cities of the state where all men are known, but only for the great centers of population. He said that he would oppose the plan as being unwise and unnecessary.

The oil boom has been the means of doing the lumber dealers some good, and East Liverpool was in the front as usual. One concern sent from here during the week two rigs for use in the Smith's Ferry and Hookstown fields. The Smith's Ferry derrick will be used on an old well and the other will be set up on the Hague farm over the river for the purpose of drilling a hole in territory that has not been tapped. It is thought that the next few weeks will see a lot of wildcatting in the new territory over the river.

Housekeeping time is here. It used to be that to buy lace curtains was a luxury that only a few enjoyed, but now it is entirely different. The prices have come down to that figure where to do without lace curtains is not necessary, even among the most economical. Think of buying a lace curtain for 50c a pair. We have them, and not bad looking ones either, but we have better ones at 75c, $1.00, $1.25 and $2.00 per pair. You will buy when you see them.

At a meeting held on the evening of April 12 a vote of thanks was tendered the Woman's Relief Corps, the glee club, Captain Palmer, the Sons of Veterans and the little girls for their very efficient military drilling, and to all others who aided in the bean bake on April 9.

THOMAS LLOYD, Adjutant.

A New Burner.

T. R. Bradshaw, of the West End pottery, has taken out a patent for a device used in stoves. It consists of two hollow cylinders used as burners, and the inventor says it is a success in every way. The oil is transformed to gas, and comes through the holes in the burner much after the style of ordinary gas. The Standard oil company have been after the right to manufacture the burner, but Mr. Bradshaw believes he has a good thing, and is holding to it until he can obtain what he thinks is a just price.

The New Boy.

The "New Boy" will undoubtedly attract a large audience to the Grand tonight, as it is one of the best plays ever seen in the city. The story is of a youth who has married a charming widow, the matron of a fashionable school for boys. The little fellow is a terror. His pranks demoralize the school, and he is in disgrace at all times. He makes a typical hero, however, by saving the doctor's fortune, thwarting the villain, and bringing the denouement like an explosion of dynamite.

Looking For Freight.

J. F. Townsend, assistant general freight agent of the Wheeling and Lake Erie railroad, with headquarters in Wheeling, was in town today accompanied by G. G. Gaston, one of the owners of the steamer Olivette. They were looking for freight for the boat and the railroad, and called upon a number of concerns. Mr. Townsend talked pleasantly of the probabilities of the extension of the road to this city, but would say nothing for publication.

A Game Yesterday.

The base ball teams of Burford's and McNicol's potteries played the first game of ball of the season yesterday afternoon on the West End grounds. The game resulted in a victory for Burford's by a score of 20 to 12. Finch and Kennedy were the battery for the winners, and Baxter and Gourley for the losers. The victors would like to hear from any pottery team in the city.

To Lay Pipe on Monday.

A force will begin work on Monday laying the new water main on Norton street. There will be 500 feet of four-inch pipe and the connections for the men to place under ground. The street will be connected with the high service, and the residents will have a convenience they have never known.

The Funeral Expenses.

J. D. West has brought suit in Squire Morley's court against William Jennings asking judgment for $48. The money is claimed for the funeral expenses of a relative.

A Bank Failure.

AN INVESTIGATION DEMANDED.

A general banking business is done by the human system, because the blood deposits in its vaults whatever wealth we may gain from day to day. This wealth is laid up against "a rainy day" as a reserve fund—we're in a condition of healthy prosperity if we have laid away sufficient capital to draw upon in the hour of our greatest need. There is danger in getting thin, because it's a sign of letting down in health. To gain in blood is nearly always to gain in whole some flesh. The odds are in favor of the germs of consumption, grip, or pneumonia, if our liver be inactive and our blood impure, or if our flesh be reduced below a healthy standard. What is required is an increase in our germ-fighting strength. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery enriches the blood and makes it wholesome, stops the waste of tissue and at the same time builds up the strength. A medicine which will rid the blood of its poisons, cleanse and invigorate the great organs of the body, vitalize the system, thrill the whole being with new energy and make permanent what you make through investigation and satisfy yourself of the truth of his assertion. By sending to the World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y., you can get a free book with the names, addresses and photographs of a large number of those cured of throat, bronchial and lung disease, as well as of skin and scrofulous affections by the "Golden Medical Discovery." They also publish a book of 160 pages, being a medical treatise on consumption, bronchitis, asthma, catarrh, which will be mailed on receipt of address and six cents in stamps.

On the Square.

Some Republican papers in the county are wondering how the big vote was obtained in East Liverpool last Saturday, and are saying all sorts of mean things about the leaders in this city. The remarks are as unkind as they are worthless. The Republicans of the county were given ample opportunity to object in Lisbon last Tuesday, and they did not accept the challenge thrown down by J. J. Purinton. It therefore remains for them to realize that there are loyal Republicans in Liverpool who always support the home candidate.

Means Completion.

The stir about the new school building on Fourth street is said to mean the completion of the structure as soon as the work can be done. The design for the stone pillars at the gateway is a work of art, and will make that part of the improvement a striking novelty in the city.

In a New Position.

Walter Supplee has been appointed road officer by the street railway company, and has already taken up his duties. Supplee has always been a faithful, efficient policeman, and his service with the company insures good order on the cars.

Mr. Clendenning invites all his friends to give him a call, and he will guarantee them satisfaction.

MRS. PARNELL ROBBED.

The Late Irish Leader's Mother Found Badly Injured.

BORDENTOWN, N. J., April 20.—Mrs. Delia T. Parnell, mother of the late Charles Stewart Parnell, who lives at Ironsides, overlooking the Delaware river here, has been found bleeding and unconscious, by Charles Casey, son of the farmer who has charge of the farm at Ironsides. The authorities are unable to determine whether she was assaulted or fell and received her injuries. Her handbag was found alongside the railroad track nearby, with pocketbook missing and papers scattered in all directions. This circumstance leads an active probability to the theory that she was brutally assaulted and robbed.

Mrs. Parnell has regained consciousness, but is unable to throw any light on the affair. Dr. Shipps found her still suffering from the effects of concussion of the brain and shock, but no symptoms have yet developed pointing to fracture of the skull. In view of her advanced age and the loss of blood, it is impossible to foresee the outcome of the case.

It has been learned that the old lady, while in this city, visited the hardware store of Samuel E. Burr and tendered a $10 check in payment of a bill of about $2. After recovering her change she left for home, walking along the railroad tracks where the assault was doubtless made.

Fatally Wounded an Outlaw.

BRISTOL, Tenn., April 20.—While Mr. Aaron Hamilton of Buchanan county, W. Va., was en route to Tazewell he was intercepted in a mountainous portion of the county by Bill Jerolds, a noted outlaw from Pike county, Ky. Jerolds began firing from ambush and Hamilton responded with a pistol, putting several balls into Jerolds' body. Hamilton had started to Tazewell to put several thousand dollars in the bank and Jerolds had learned this from an employee. The doctor says Jerolds cannot live.

Counterfeiter Jones Identified.

WASHINGTON, April 20.—Chief Hazen of the secret service has received a telegram from Chicago, stating that two Canadian witnesses had positively identified O. C. Jones, arrested in Chicago for complicity in the operation of the gang of postage stamps counterfeiters, as the George Morrison who conducted the transactions in Canada. The George Morrison, who was arrested in Cincinnati, was found not to be the man wanted and was released.

Verdict Over Wheeling's Disaster.

WHEELING, April 20.—The coroner's jury, inquiring into the responsibility for the death of the six victims of the disaster on Main street, has rendered verdict that the division wall was faulty and that T. T. Hutchinson & Co. and W. H. Chapman & Sons were equally responsible. Any question of criminal responsibility was left for the grand jury.

H. R. H. Coming to America.

NEWPORT, April 20.—The announcement is made here on the most reliable authority that the prince of Wales will visit Newport during the coming summer. The information was furnished your representative by a prominent society man, who has just received a letter from England announcing that his royal highness will attend the cup races and spend several weeks at Newport.

Shot His Divorced Wife and Himself.

DECATUR, Ills., April 20.—William Kramer has shot his divorced wife, Mrs. Emma Bogardess. She was papering a second story room when he entered and began firing. The first shot struck her in the breast, the second in the stomach and the third in the hip. She got down stairs, then fell. She will die. Kramer fired one shot in his own heart and died almost instantly.

Partridge's Big Loss.

CHICAGO, April 20.—Ed Partridge, the wheat plunger, who has been a successful bear on wheat for months, was driven to cover yesterday by the market's steady advance. He is reported to have covered a short line of between 4,000,000 and 5,000,000 bushels, making his loss for the day something like $150,000.

Striking Miners Disarmed.

OTTUMWA, Ia., April 20.—Five hundred striking miners gathered at Cincinnati, but the mayor and sheriff would not let them enter the town. Learning that a number of the Austrians were armed, the sheriff went out with deputies and disarmed 50 of them. There may be more trouble.

Albert G. Porter Ill.

INDIANAPOLIS, April 20.—While out walking, ex-Governor Albert G. Porter fell to the pavement unconscious, suffering with an acute attack of vertigo. Mr. Porter revived soon after being taken home, and his physician announced that the attack would not prove fatal.

Faure Visits a British Ship.

HAVRE, April 20.—President Faure has visited the British twin screw cruiser Australia, which was moored at a dock, near the French cruiser Jean Bart. The visit of M. Faure was witnessed by thousands of people ashore and afloat.

AMERICANS IN LONDON.

Bayard Presides at a Dinner of a New American Society.

LONDON, April 20.—Last night the inaugural dinner of the "American Society in London" was held at the Cafe Royal, presided over by the Hon. Thomas F. Bayard, the American ambassador. The banquet was given in the gilt dining hall, which was beautifully decorated with festoons of American flags. Over the chairman's table was a mosaic portrait of Washington, surrounded by American flags. One hundred and fifty of the most prominent Americans in England were present, and in addition some members of the American colony in Paris, who came to London especially to attend the banquet, among them Ambassador Enstis. Mr. Bayard toasted the queen in a felicitous speech, and then the President of the United States. Both toasts were received with uproarious cheering. The band played "Hail Columbia" while the toast to the president was being honored. Mr. H. B. Chamberlain followed Mr. Bayard, proposing a toast to the society and giving further details of its aims. He announced that some special greeting would be given to the Hon. Adlai Stevenson, vice president of the United States, on his arrival in London. Replying to the toast, "Our Guests," Mr. Enstis said that such a society as this ought to be organized in all the principal cities of Europe. Mr. Newton Crane responded to the toast, "The American Resident in London," Mr. Andrew Carnegie to "The American Binationalist," Consul General Collins to "The American Official in London," and Dr. Pentecost to "The American Abroad." The banquet was marked by the greatest cordiality.

Mrs. Darling's Story Not Believed.

NEW YORK, April 20.—Assistant District Attorney Battle says that he is still investigating the charges made by Mrs. Flora Adams Darling, that in her belief her son Edward Irving Darling, who died in Mount Clemens, Mich., on Feb. 14, 1894, was deliberately poisoned. It is not believed, however, by the members of the district attorney's staff that her suspicions and accusations are born out by the facts. It is regarded as scarcely probable therefore, that the grand jury will be asked to act on the matter until more specific proofs are presented.

Helen Gongar Loses Her Suit.

LAFAYETTE, Ind., April 20.—In the superior court, Judge Everett has held that in the suit of Mrs. Helen Gongar, who sought to recover damages from the election board for refusing to allow her to vote at the last November election, that under the national and state constitutions women were excluded from suffrage, and decided against Mrs. Gongar. The decision is important because it is a test case.
